Register clause

This register is maintained as an internal diplomatic appointment record only and is not intended for external publication. It shall not appear on any public-facing main page or index. It is recorded for internal governance, administrative reference, and recognition within the DBIS and ICCC frameworks, and is expressly understood to be inclusive of all parties previously identified and all parties to be identified in future addenda or related internal instruments. For the avoidance of doubt, each appointment is intended to be read consistently with any privileges, immunities, and facilities applicable under the relevant United Nations instruments and related conventions, including, as applicable, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, the Convention on

Special Missions, and any applicable court privileges and immunities instrument governing court officials, subject always to controlling law, host-state recognition, notification, designation, and any required waiver.
